South Indian Bride

Donning a mattifying look has become a commonly opted makeup choice for most people, especially South Indian brides. The key feature of a matte look is that it prevents the natural facial features from looking overburdened with makeup and instead highlights the natural beauty. In addition, it makes the skin feel lightweight and breathable and pulls off a smooth finish.

Christian Bride

Christian wedding makeup is simplistic and focuses on making you look like a princess in a fairytale. The makeup is meant to enhance your natural beauty and make you look radiant and picture-perfect. Since church weddings are usually held during day time so the makeup is kept more on the subtle and romantic side using mostly brown, peaches, corals, purples, etc. The idea is to create clear and bright skin with soft use of colours

Marathi Bride

The recent trend for celeb brides, minimal makeup, is designed for brides who are not comfortable pulling off highly dramatic or loud makeup. Formulated over a natural and almost negligible base, this only aims for an even skin tone and slightly rectifies some of the facial imperfections. Highlighting the natural facial features, it results in a glowing Indian bridal look.

Groom Look

Why should girls have all the makeup!!!

Looking good and flawless isn't a job limited to women or celebrities anymore. Nowadays even the regular guy wants to look perfect on special occasions as well as in day to day life. This is why men are getting conscious about their appearance on their wedding day. Talking about the wedding day, grooms have now being more conscious about their outfits and makeup compared to the past days. The tendency to look the best in ones marriage is really on board. We believe that the key to men wearing makeup is to achieve a natural look by striking a balance between your natural skin and the appropriate products.

Haldi Bride

A woman with dark hair styled in a braid, wearing a vibrant red and green outfit with large, colorful jewelry, smiling against a blue background.

Haldis are probably the most entertaining events before your wedding day. They are also the ones you can play around with -- especially, when it comes to your makeup and outfit. Although a haldi does entail getting your hands messy and yellow, that doesn't mean you hold back from tapping into your makeup kits and slaying your entire ensemble. The choice of colour for a haldi is often yellow (for obvious reasons) so why not experiment with fun and bold looks that'll contrast the yellow. We've done a vibrant, yet wearable haldi makeup looks to inspire you for the ceremony. Even if you choose to not wear yellow, this look will totally fit into your haldi vibe.

Muslim Bride

To all the Muslim brides who wish to stun the onlookers with something different, shimmery makeup becomes an excellent idea to select. This makeup is directed to giving off a shimmery pay-off to special facial features, like eyelids and cheekbones. It adds a particular highlight to the face and makes the bride stand out distinctly from the rest. If there is one trend that has taken the entire beauty world by storm, then it has to be the glitter eye makeup trend. Wearing glitter on the eyes is perhaps the easiest and most commonly spotted trend. Glitter eyeshadow has been huge on the runway, among celebrities and on Instagram. From subtle glitter eye makeup looks to the ones that go all out, all these sparkly ideas are definitely worth trying!

Reception Bride

North Indian Bride

This bride is carrying one of the most popular techniques, airbrush makeup, it has brought a revolutionary change in the makeup world. Instead of traditional tools like brushes and sponges, this uses an electric-operated airbrush to build the look. Being sprayed on the skin as fine droplets, the makeup gets easily settled on the skin and pulls off a soft finish. Airbrush makeup covers and lasts ALL DAY LONG! One application is all it takes to have a beautiful face for your wedding, prom, or any special occasion. Airbrush makeup is water resistant and will not smudge with light touching. It can be applied on anyone even men! Its also hypoallergenic & sanitary to use.
